

Knowledge Networker Associations Program

COLLEGE
OF PRACTICE
PROFESSORS

Program overview

There is no better way to build successful relationships than through the exchange of information and knowledge! In these engaging practice-based workshops, you'll learn how to leverage networks as a resource for knowledge, planning for success, being a critically informed reader, and more. By the end of this program, you'll be a master of the networking skills that help associations achieve their goals, learn how to find and leverage resources, plan for future growth and think critically about knowledge acquisition.

This course offers a flexible, open learning approach, using cases to develop professional capabilities - with direct implications for your association. Your learning will be based on the latest research in network-based learning and knowledge acquisition. The program will empower you in leadership of networks as knowledge resources. The program teaches techniques to effectively gain knowledge and enhances your leadership performance.

In addition, by combining the Knowledge Networker Associations Program with College membership, you will also receive a diploma, extend your network and enhance your resume as a leader with a great aptitude for knowledge networking.

Details

This program is modular in nature, so you can pick up where you left off - at your convenience. The six modules will help you enhance your learning leadership and staff learning development capabilities. At the successful completion of the program, and after a one-day forum, you will be eligible to receive the Diploma of Learning Leadership (Knowledge Networker). The forum is a great way to interact with other professionals with similar experiences.

Program modules:

1. Networks as a knowledge resource
2. Planning for knowledge network success
3. Being a critically informed reader
4. Leveraging knowledge within the association
5. Acquiring knowledge for foresight
6. A psychological approach to managing knowledge

Six individual workshops are delivered for each module (the diploma comprises 36 workshops in total). The workshops run for three hours and are delivered at the college headquarters at 440 Collins Street. Each module can be used for 36 CPD hours of training; and the price of each module is $4000 per participant. If you:
